What to Expect

Hosted by London's largest group of JavaScript and HTML5 developers, London HalfStack is an annual, one-day front-end web conference in a pub. With a mix of high quality, lively, entertaining talks, and an audience filled with passionate and talented web developers and software engineers, it is an incredibly positive and fun experience in a close knit setting limited to 160 delegates.

Sponsors are encouraged to get involved to make our event even better.
Choose from one of our sponsor levels or propose your own!

Why Sponsor?

An intimate setting with very high quality attendees and talks

- Sponsorships are customized to the sponsor to give you a solid return on your investment
- Sponsor will feature prominently prior to the event on the event web site, mailing list, social media, and monthly meetups
- Sponsor will feature prominently at the event in the slide deck, conference badges, and any other promotional materials
- Sponsor will feature prominently after the event on recorded videos, monthly meetups, and initial 2019 event website
- Sponsor will receive our thanks during the opening session
- Sponsor may distribute their swag to attendees
